No. 54-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Madhya Pradesh Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.

Shri Hussain, Police Constable No. 446, Chhatarpur District, Madhya Pradesh.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

On the 29th April 1960 Constables Mulle, Hussain, Kasam Khan and Rahman Khan of Police Station Rajnagar, Chhatarpur District, Madhya Pradesh, went out on a routine patrol in the tract between village Dalpatpura and Lalpur where the notorious dacoit Charliraja and his gang were said to be. This gang had been terrorising the area for some time and had inflicted several casualties on the Police and the public.

At about 6 P.M. when the patrol party reached a dry tank they came upon two dacoits who, on seeing the Police, immediately started to run. Constable Mulle who was leading the patrol called to them to stop, whereupon Charliraja and two other dacoits came out from a hut nearby. Constable Mulle opened fire on Charliraja but missed. The five dacoits then climbed the wall of the tank and fired on the Police from behind it. Constable Mulle was shot dead, Constable Hussain, who was immediately behind him, then opened fire on the dacoits and although in an exposed position continued to defend his party against them. He received several injuries, including a bullet through the arm, but defended his position tenaciously and ultimately forced the gang to withdraw.

Constable Hussain then walked three miles to village Dhara in order to send word about the death of Constable Mulle and ask for police reinforcements from Rajnagar Police Station and village Dalpatpura. Having done this he limped back to the tank to guard the body of his dead comrade, whilst the other two constables in the party went to another village for help.

In this encounter Constable Hussain, though severely wounded, showed initiative, courage and devotion to duty of a high order.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the Rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police.

New Delhi, the 23rd September 1960

No. 55-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officers of the Uttar Pradesh Police:—

Names of the officers and ranks.

1. Shri Debi Charan, Constable No. 8282, VI Battalion, Provincial Armed Constabulary, Roorkee, Uttar Pradesh (deceased).
2. Shri Thakur Prasad, Head Constable, 'Z' Company, Provincial Armed Constabulary, Uttar Pradesh.
3. Shri Dukhi Ram, Constable 'Z' Company, Provincial Armed Constabulary, Uttar Pradesh.

Statement of services for which the decorations have been awarded.

On receipt of information on the evening of the 6th August, 1959 of the presence of the heavily armed gang of dacoit Rupa in village Scrab in the Panihat Police Circle, the Deputy Inspector General of Police, Agra Range, and the Senior Superintendent of Police, Agra, immediately reached Police Station Fatehabad and chalked out a plan for the arrest of the dacoits. The Police Force available was divided into three parties which were detailed to surround the village and its hamlets from three sides. A separate Provincial Armed Constabulary force took up position facing the village on the opposite bank of the river Gambhir. The Provincial Armed Constabulary contingent posted at Panihat was also requisitioned to act as a striking force in the attack on the gang. Early next morning the striking force advanced towards the village. The dacoits opened heavy fire on them, but they continued to advance. Finding police pressure heavy, three of the dacoits armed with rifles made a desperate bid to run towards the river under cover of fire. To prevent them escaping, the police party gave chase and when the dacoits entered the flood river to cross it, Head Constable Thakur Prasad, Constable Dukhi Ram and Constable Debi Charan of the P.A.C. followed regardless of their own safety, and continued the chase until they reached an island in the middle of the river. At this time the Police were being subjected to heavy fire from the main body of dacoits from their position in theillage. Constable Debi Charan, who was well in the lead of the pursuing party, was suddenly hit by a bullet and died at the spot. Head Constable Thakur Prasad and Constable Dukhi Ram then again entered the main stream and succeeded in killing two of the dacoits, one of whom happened to be the notorious Laiq Singh, a former member of Man Singh gang and the chief lieutenant of Rupa.

In this successful encounter, these three Police officers displayed conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty of a very high order in the performance of which Constable Debi Charan laid down his life.

2. These awards are made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carry with them the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
